Miss Lottle Mortimer. The locomotive will be there.
"The Power of the Press" enters upon the second month of its run at the Star Theatre, Monday night. The play is oblined to end its run at this house May 2. On Friday, May 1, the fiftieth performance will be celebrated with souvenirs. "The Power of the Press."
has a brilliant road career before its many Daveners and the start of the Press."
The general belief in whichcraft which pre

"Master sid Man," an English melodrama that was originally presented in this country at Paimer's Theatre, with Richard Manwfield in the role of Humpy Logan, will be next week's attraction at H. R. Jacobs' Theatre. The story touches the industrial problem, and the play contains some striking scenes.

"All the Comforts of Home" will be continued at Herrmann's Theatre until May 2, and will then go to the Columbia Theatre, Chicago, for a run. The one hundredils performance was celebrated last night by the distribution of very preity souvenins. There was a packed house, and Gillette's merry comedy never went better.

"Alsbams" is an immense success at the Madason Equare Theatre, and nearly everying during the past week the box office has been obliged to "turn people away." Augustion blooms has hit the mark this time with his play of American life. The only trouble is that "Alabams" cannot remain very much longer in New Yorz.

"Poor Jonathan" is still such a success at the Casino that the rehearsals of the opera to follow it are held in abeyance. Miss Lillian Russell, whose days at the Casino are numbered, is singing the role of Dr. Harriet as charmingly as ever. Miss Fanny Rice, who is soon to star, is still interpreting Mollie.

Joseph Murpby, one of the best Irish comedians on the stage, begins a four weeks' engagement at the Pourisenth Sirect Theatre Monday night, presenting "The Kerry Gov." The scenery and costumes will be all new and Mit. Marphy always has a good company. The forge scene will be snown very realistically.

Nat Goodwin and "The Nomince" have

The Theathes next week with the content of the programm of not next the strength of the streng

The only appearance in Brooklyn this season of Agnes liumlington will be made sex, we-k at the Ampaloc, when see will present Planquette's comic opera, '' Paul Jones. '' Miss Huntington, who possesses a remarkably clear

Miss Fanny Davenport will begin the third week of her engagement at the Broadway Theatra Monday main. The return of "Cleoparra" has shown that the interest in the Eayle has beyon means goated. Miss Bavenport's production is a beautiful one, and the storm scene aione is worth the price of admission.

There will be many new features in "U & I" at the Standard Theatre Monday night.

The first appearance of Rose Coghtan in the Manner of Rose Coghtan in the

There will be many new features in "U & I" sat the Standard Theatre Monday night.

I" at the Standard Theatre Monday night.

The first appearance of Rose Cochian in the watern at that house. The Carmendia ballet has made a bit, and will be continued. The season will be made at the New Park next "Mystic briners" will attend the performance Monday night, as a compliment to Williams and Kelly, who are "nobles" of that order.

"The first appearance of Rose Cochian in the western end of Brooklyn since as bound the season will be made at the New Park next season will be "The Old Homestead," strange as this may sound, has but there weeks now to remain at the Academy of Music. Its final performance will occur buturday night, hav? and it will then be withdrawn after a career that has certainly been memorable. Under Jennan will travel next season.

Misst Jydis Thompson is to dazzie Niblo's audiences next week in her musical farce-comedies that was ever written, will be accomeny aptly entitled "The Dazzler." The piece is an extremely good one of its kind, and the company is worth seeing. Miss the king-pin of ine ign-makers, assisted by a capital company.

"Master and Man," an English melodrama that was originally presented in this country at Painer's Theatre, with Richard Mansfield in the role of Humpy Logan, will be next week's attraction at H. I. Jacobo Theatre. The story touches the industrial problem, and the play contains some artiking artiking and the FUN IN BLACK AND WHITE. HER DREAM OF LOVE IS O'ER.

THE WORLD: SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 11, 1891.

Her Lover Said He was one of

New York's "400."

But She Found He was the Dude Bon

of a Baggage Porter.

A matrimonial engagement was broken ast week. The young lady in the case was on unsophisticated but pretty creature living up the Hudson. The man was one of tender age, but of aggressive pretensions, who had chanced across the maiden while on a Summer outing last August, says the

By his own representations he was the son of an extremely rich New York banker, and the doors of the 400 stood continually ajar to welcome him into the sacred confines of the most intensely aristocratic rural young ladies, this particular up-coun-mustache, strictly elegant garments and a British accent were unmistakable evidences of noble lineage and high breeding, so she had no doubts of her future when she

the city. All through the Fall and Winter marred only by their enforced separation.

Letters of love passed daily between the netropolis and the little village on the Hudson and once in a great while the young

Finally the enraptured maiden found an inforseen opportunity to visit in the neighborhood where her lover dwelt. An aunt living in Brooklyn sent word that she would like to have her niece come to her

Wishing to completely surprise her young accepted the invitation at once.

man went up the river to pass Sunday.

Kansas City Star.

A Few Illustrated Witticisms Culled from Various Sources.

A Long Felt Want,

you put that top step of the stairs above the try girl believed that a perfectly lovely (Individual appears at the side door of the dime museum in wild haste)- "Say, Johnny, took up her book and started towards the hotel .

and had followed her. Miss Stockton was affable and gracious to all. I ust a favor of you? only a few hours ago, "answered the man. and without even a particle of reserve; and she "Certainly, I shall the become immediately the centre of all the mirth service in my power." d'hote dinner. "Bae had a headache," he and gaietr of the place. But Murray soon discovered that this seeming gainty covered a re-The next morning. Murray sauntered down serve and self-control that nothing could to the neach at the usual bathing-hour, hoping shake. He discovered this in the following

he felt so much interest and sympathy. As he | Miss Stockton wore, on her left foredinger, a looked, he saw a lady in a bathing-dress of curiously large plain gold ring, set with a take it off my finger. It was a large, plain wounded soldiers from the Crimes. bine, with beaming hair falling around her single one, and guarded by a handsome dia-shoulders like sunbeams; whose face might mond cluster. Several times, in his presence, curiously carved, to which the opal resily shoulders like sunt-same; whose face might mond cluster. Several times, in his presence, bare been a model for the goddess of mirth, people had remarked the ring, and even rebelonged. I must find it. Will you nelp me? Mamma and Uncle Stockton used to say the noise came, she saw a man struggling with careless, and oblidike; and as she quested to be allowed to examine it; but and I will give a hundred times its value for Ms ; that I was a good nurse." froitched and played with the water as though would never be prevailed upon to remove it safe return. caring where he was going, occasionally it were her native element, he doubted from her finger even for a moment. One day, awitening off the top of a flower or weed, and whether he had really seen or had only as she sat surrounded, as usual, by a crowd, a

Before the sentence was finished she had felt kneeling against a moss-grown rock, her form familiar in her face. She resembled one for the ring with her thumb; and perceiving that it was gone, her lips grew ashy white; At dinner she appeared in a long, trailing but as her eyes fell slowly to her nand, she so-dress of delicate bine; and was universally awared, without a moment's besitation or the had compared from its confinement, and hung in yoted the handsomest woman of the season. movement of a muscle of her face: "I taint I long, half-waving, half-curling golden masses.

After dinner, as she stood in the room, surmust have lost it. I had it only a short time

117" . . I do not know where I lost it. I think was interested; he never thought of going which she knewso well how to cover any little approached... will you wear my colors and be "Till I send you this ring, you must never away. He must get acquainted with her, and awkwaraness; but ra'sing her eyes to his face, my true knight? Your tavorite flowers!" if no could not lighton, he could, at least, sym-pathus with her in her sorrow. White he stood then rushed beek, crimeening cheek and brow.

There were about 4,000 strikes throughout th

A Game Which Is a Test for the The Right-Hour Conference will meet this evening at 25 East Fourth street. A number of corporaters were discharged in Busness Arres for refusing to work on Sundays. The latest fad in parlor entertainments has just struck this town, says the Kings The eight-hour question will be discussed by Machinists' Progressive Union No. 1 next Monday It is conducted in this wise : A party of

FROM THE WORLD OF LABOR.

Section Newtown, Scenalist Labor narty, will elect delegates to the New York State Convention to-morrow afternoon. It is proposed to form interary labor reading circles in connection with all local assemblies of the Knights of Labor. Ale and Porter Union No. I will dedicate its new flag this evening at Wendel's Assembly Rooms. West Forty-fourth street, generally consisting of a pin, matches, hair-pin, potato, bottle of ink, &c., upon a table. Then each of the party is allowed to enter the room and inspect the things for the short space of one minute.

When all have looked at the the contents

The Bakers' Society Harmony gives its eighth an-The railroad employees and dockers of Rio Janeiro are on strike and for several days all traffic was interrupted.

interrupted.

Monopoly is land and the instruments of labor is the source of all other monopoly; abolish the former and the other will disappear also.

The large death rate in our big cities from the grip is due to a great extent to the low standard of life of our hard working tenement-house population. When all have looked at the the contents of the table they begin the work of enu merating on paper as many of the articles as they can remember. The one who has the largest correct number is awarded a correct. District Assembly No. 40 has removed its head-quarters from HS Forsyth street to 52 Union Square, where all communications should be addressed to Recording Secretary William Machair. The chester of the Posters and Sandpaperers' Union will be uncovered for the first time to-morrow executes and ster to exement there will be an execute entertainment.

prize.

If a person marks down something that is not upon the table he or she forfeits one of the articles that is really there and has been mentioned. The rule is that each one of the party must have looked at the table before the work of putting their observations on paper begins.

The articles are arranged in such a manner that a person must be very observing and possessed of a retentive memory to come anywhere near naming the fifty things. evanine entertainment.

The St. Paul labor unions oppose the bill in the Minesta Legislature, by which it is proposed to give those Legislature, by which it is proposed to give their dog licenses.

Negotiations are under way to settle the capmost and the state of the control of the settle the capmost control of the settle that the capmost control of the union recognized, and all strikers be religiated. come anywhere near naming the fifty things.

THE LATEST FAD.

Memory.

ladies and gentlemen assemble together for an evening's enjoyment. Games are proposed, and if the one lately introduced is agreed upon the hostess goes into an ad-joining room and places fifty small articles.

How About This, Mr. Gould?

To the Editor.

Will you kindiggive space in the columns of The Evenico World to this humble plaint?

You have always been the true and consistent friend of oppressed toll. This cry comes from the employees of a mighty and rice corporation, the Mannatten L. RR. Company.

From gatemen, in its employ this company exacts twelve hours of mecasing labor as a day's work for which it pays the very munifocat.

Branch 12, of the Paving Counters' National Union. had no doubts of her future when she of THE EVENING WORLD to this humble plaint? promised on a romantic moonlight night to You have always been the true and consistent e the wife of the sweet young man from friend of oppressed toll. This cry comes from the engagement of the pair was a delight the Mannatten L. RH. Company.

day's work for which it pays the very munifocest as a most strain of a man standing all day; be daunot all down, while through are coming to or leaving trains, watching that no coming the coming trains the coming tra person boards a train without depositing a ticket in the cancelling box or, otherwise, showing a pass legued by the Company!

The new scale adopted by Typegraphical Union No. 774 has been accepted by all German printing offices in this otty run length, respect to Bellic friends Journal and Boss belowes begun to the support of the state of the otty run length of the support of th when the system is many times more remuner-ative, it pays starvation prices. The question man, she refrained from letting him know may pertinently be asked " Have corporations of her intended visit. It was understood Exira men get on an average from three to that her uncle would meet her at the Grand four days a week. The Company keeps hiring Central Depot in New York and take her work is divided, a man makes from $3.75 to Central Depot in New York and take her to Brooklyn, and from there it was the young lady's intention to write to her sweetheart.

At last she got away on her journey, but, to ber dismay, upon reaching the depot in New York, there was no uncle there to meet her. For hours she waited alone in the great, bustling station, not knowing what to do. She shrank from sending word to her lover, for she could not tell him where her uncle lived, and she never thought that a directory in Brooklyn would reveal that information.

Evening came on, and when it was get—the state of the water also, and the state of the water also, and the state of the water also, and the state of the water and the water and the state of the water and the state of the water and the state of the water and the water and the state of the water and the state of the water and the state of the water and the water and the state of the water and the state of the water and the water and the state of the water and the water and the water and the state of the water and t set Jones's leg.

Doctor Keneen (a rival of Piller)—Piller set a leg! Why, he couldn't set a hen ! HEALTH FOOD COMPANY'S GLU-TEN SUPPOSITORIES ours constitution and piles. By mail, 50c 61 Fifth are, and all druggists.

Recovering her self-command in a moment, pressed his high sense of the honor conferred, her bracelet became unclasped and fell to the placed the cup on the table, the man put his

Not Much of a Setter

Bloobumper-They called in Dr. Piller t

Has His Admirers. [From Pack.]
Tottle—lt's a shame to abuse poor Beattle

Dottle-Why, Tottle?
Tottle-If it wasn't for him how could we get materials for mud plea?

SPECIAL NOTICES.

"ANCHOR BRAND" SHIRTS "LION BRAND " COLLARS AND CUPPS

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE BROOKLYN

Brooklyn. Present this advertisement and get free lokate at the gate Sunday. W. M. Momit, 15 Willoughby street, Procklyn.

PENSIONS.

blanks, &c. C. E. MILROY, U. S. Claim Att'y, 240 Broadway, N. Y., and Box 559, Washington

PREEL PRESIAN CORN CURE.
ADDRESS, COHN & BRO.
21 GRAND ST., N. Y.

"Cariainiy. I shall be most happy to do any a stranger is yours; attempt to approach ing and shouting. .. I will first tell you that I wish the matter to be kept secret as far as possible." "I promise." "I have lost a ring. Some one took it from

"Yes, immediately, please."

tinger in jest by one of her lady-friends.

"Why do you shun me as you do ?"

"I lave you. " I do not love you."

"Alas! I know that only too well.

AMUSEMENTS.

AMUSEMENTS.

■NIBLO'S■ oRESERVE A STREET SO CENTS OF SO CENTS OF STREET ORESE STREET OF STREET OR S

And her Remarkable Company of Comedian in the new Bri

BIJOU. NAT. C.

The Nominee

ROARS OF LAUGHTER TUMULTUOUS APPLAUSE. ACADEMY
GILMORK A TOMPKINS, Propres, and Mare

FEW DAYS IT WILL END. LAST MATS, THE 4TH YEAR DENMAN THOMPSON

AND THE ORIGINAL CO., TH HOMESTEAD

MEADISON SQUARE GARDEN.

DR. McGLYNN.

AGTH ST. THEATRE. Near 6th ave Every night. Matiness Wed, and cat. Reserved seat. Probates Cycle & Balcony, 50 ets. ROSE COCHLAN

IN PEG WOFFINGTON,
Next week - Joseph Murphy in Kerry-Gow

WINION SQUARE THEATRE, J. M. Hill, Mer B. TURDAY APRIL 11. KATE CLANTON 19,105 KATE ULAXTON APRIL II.

MRN. McKEE RANKIN ORPHANN. K.
KSUNDAY EVENING. April II. Prot. J. K.
KSUNDAY EVENING. APRIL III. P. M.
KSUNDAY EVENING. APRIL II. P. M.
KSUNDAY EVENING. APRIL II.

KOSTER & BIAL'S. Mats. Mon., Tues. & Sat.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE Neil COUNTY FAIR, Wed, 2 S Burgers, Matines Next week - IENRY E. DIXFY in 7 Ages. Next Sunday Prof. Cromwell's Hostrated Section - New Orleans, the South and Half."

MAMMERSTEIN'S Rariem Opera-House, Matines Today—A VOI LIKE IT. Trong t-THE HUNCHBACK, SEXT WEEK—JAMES O'NFILL.

POWERS, IN STRAIGHT TIP.

DESCRIPTION OF THE ACT OF THE PROCTOR'S THRATRE, 22d es.

Fundent p ay in retre.

Charles Frohman presents a company of come lane. Wm. Gulette's:
Hit. Mattones Wed. and Sat.

TO TINY PASTOR'S THRATRE,
TO TINY PASTOR'S THRATRE,
TO TINY PASTOR'S GREAT SHOW
NIGHT LOTTIK GLIASON FLORA MOORE
GALA DUTCH DALY.
NIGHT CONROY AND FOX RAMOCHI BROADWAY AND 30TH ST. CASINO.

POOR JONATHAN. Admission, 50c. Seats on rais two weeks ahead, PROADWAY THRATER. COR 418T ST.
r vonings at 5. Matines Satur as at 2. DAVENPORT | CLEOPATRA.

GARDEN THRATRE, TO NIGHT.
THE LATIST PARISIAN SUCCESS.
"BFTROTHED."
Fernings at 8.15. Matines baturday at 2. EDEN--OTERO--LAST WEEK BUTONE W. SEE WONDERPUL JAPANESE.

HUBER'S 14th St. Palace Museum.

DOUBLE STACE CO. A JOLLY COMEDY " MIXED UP." STAR To-Night THEATRE.

POWER

PRESS.

The great Clab-Rosse Scene.

BE ARRIGAN'S THEATRE, 35th at. and 6th ava. Reilly and the 400. A MBERG THEATRE, Irring Place and 18th st.
To-night, Farance of the Mananacemer, "Melneid-baner Mon. Sredimann, "Poor Jonathan "Tune, (first time), Locere in "Fring Methicalem," Wel. Stretmann, "Podermann," Thurs (first time), Frijay and Sat., "Die Sonne."

PA. C. MINER'S PROPLE'S THEATRE.

In drama UNCLE JOE OR.

PRITZ IN A MADROUSE.

NEXT WEEK BOTTOM OF THE BRA.

WINDSOR THEATRE.

OR THEATRE.

Bronson Howard's

SHENANDOAH.

Next Wesk - Minnie Palmer. BROOKLYN AMUSEMENTS:

EROOKLYN ACADEMY OF MUSIC, SUNDAY NIGHT, APRIL 12. INCERSOLL

HOLMES' STAR THEATRE.

WEEK OF APRIL 13. New WE. US&CO. Next Week-UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.

INGERSOLL.

AMPHION. KNOWLES & MORRES, CLARA MORRIS IN ODETTE COL. SINN'S NEW PARK THEATRE. This week only, with Saturday matines, FRANCI'S WILSON IN THE MERRY MUNAROU. ORIGINAL SCHNERY AND EFFECTS.

Coming Events. Calico ball of the New York Democracy, Tenth Assembly District, at Germania Assem-bly Rooms, 791-293 Bowery, Monday evening.

He Knew the Old Man, Brotson-Miss Filkins-Pauline, will you be

TATE ST. MUSIC HALL and Albambra Cours.

13 and 136 Rat 14th st.

Orchestrion plays every afternoon and evening.

LYCEUM THEATIE. Begins S. 15. Mai, Sat.

Daniel Froman's alaborate production,
OLD HEAD'S AND YGUNG HEARTS.

Several months later, as Rina approached

. Doctor, that noise will disturb the sick; to should not be allowed," she said to a physicism

"It is very bad. It is a man in delirius a strength that only delirium could give, to So you are. But you are not strong enough free himself from the held of several men, all of jections. You can easily hire a woman to go, ing ner hand on his head, she bent over him and called his name-

" Charley !" " An!" he said, ceasing to struggle. " I knew you would come, if I could only make you hear. I have been waiting for you all One day, when Rina had been in Scutari for these years."

several weeks, as she was tenderly closing the eyes of a poor boy who had breathed his last tired; I will alt here while you sleep. " You will not go away again?"

In a few moments he was sleeping calmly, holding her hand tightly clasped in his. When "You will find a letter in the breast-pocket of he awoke he was no longer delirious. As Rins

RINA MURRAY'S HUSBAND

The Story of an Unnatural Marriage as the Price of a Friend's Honor.

[Concluded from Yesterday.] A year passed and Rina sat reading a letter- wife." the first she had received from her husband since his departure. "Madam," it said, " you will no doubt be of the kind. I merely wish to say to you that, you are only jesting. You do not mean what considering our utter inability to please each other, I have decided that we shall each consider ourselves free. Our secret is sale, and I will never acknowledge you as my wife.

As she finished reading the letter Charley Gardiner appeared at the door. "Good morning, Rina. May I come in ?" he

"Yes, father has consented at last. You back," know how much I have wished to go; and "No, Charley. You must never ask me

"I have an amniet that will protect me from all charmers. I shall never love any one but speak to me so again." you. No one clas can ever be half so beaut-

| ful to me and no one else shall ever be m;

"Charley, I can never marry you, nor any one. "Rins, you are promised to me a thousand surprised to receive a letter from me. In ex- times over, and no one else shall have you. If cuse, I promise that it shall be my last offense you marry any one else I will kill him. But > "Charley, I do." " You will not marry me?" · · I cannot. "

 Why ?" " I cannot tell you." "Do you care for any one clas ?" *No. I like you better than any one else 'Yes, come in. So you are going to Ger-in all the world, but I cannot marry you." "You will change your mind when I come when I come back I shall claim my little | again, if the time over comes when I can marry you I will send you this ring." Nonsenae! some fair German gi'l will As she spoke she touched an old-fashioned, he knew she was a stranger just arrived. He Sae did not catch the name; but bowing with fall in love with you, and transform you into a Count or Prince, and we shall not know you been an heirloom in the Gardiner family, and burden, whatever it might be, for her. He envied, began some politic little speech, with which Charley had given her.

fashion of London society seemed to have met Two gentlemen sat talking apart.

kind of look about high, but who was elegantly dressed, "I can't see so much beauty in these women as you pretend to discover. " "Nonsense, Murray!" exclaimed his comamon. "My dear fellow, you are the most upreasonable man living. Come, now, you never were among such beautiful women or so many of 'em before, were you? You are a judge, if what I hear about your Eastern exploits is true. But ab! there's a lady I must speak to. Excuse me. Murray." "Oh, certainly; and I'll take a walk and get an appetite, Captain Murray went strolling along, not living. Presently he heard a slight noise, and emotion such as ne thought few were capable your opsi ring to-day," raising his head, he saw before him a ledy of feeling. There was something strangely snaking with emotion, and evidently in an

She was a mply dressed; but her golden hair and a book lay beside her on the ground,

Years passed away, and a brilliant throng thinking thus, the lady got up from her kneelwere assembled at Ryde, for it was the height ing posture, went to a small rivulet close by, of the season, and all the wealth, beauty and bathed her face, and pulling her veil forward. the hotel, he saked a waiter, who happened to | could have known that he had seen her crying, | Stockton, as usual. "Well," said one, who had a dissipated be passing, who she was, " Miss Stockton, the famous beauty-came > heard a lady explain to a gentleman. to find among the bathers the person in whom manner:

whom he knew in past years. After diaper, as she arous in the distributed ago."

rounded by a hoat of adm rers, a lady touched ago."

rounded by a hoat of adm rers, a lady touched ago."

We will look for it. Where did you look for it. Retiring a short distance, Murray stood and her arm and said: "Miss Stockton, allow me looked at her, lie could not see her face, but to present Captain "--- july thinking that, after sit, life was not worth dreamed that he had seen her shaking with gentleman said to her, "I see you do not wear flush, Murray would not have noticed the across the room. Meantime Murray had passed the inside- "Rina Murray Stockton. pager. As it was, he wondered whether she out to the terrace and stood thinking of Miss Presently he hear! her way: "General, may my suger, for I have the guard still, and I had an old hady, who sat knitting.

the lost ring only a short time age. I never "I am going to Scutari to help murse the As they entered the halt the shouls grew Shall I enlist him?" A few hours later, Miss Stockton recrived a

"Miss Stockton!" "Capta'n Mutray!"

" Cap'a n Murray, are you quite awake?" "If I have been so rude, I beg pardon."

floor. Capt. Murray stooped to picked it up, arms around her, and drawing her t she finished the setence she had begun, so and she fastened the flowers upon his breast floor. Capt. Murray stooped to picked it up. quietly that if he had not seen her paic and Rising, he offered his arm, and they walked. As he did so his eye caucht an inscription on murmured, "Ally beloved, my wite, one kum;"

> ment tone, passing between each word. .. So nearer, and you lose even that," . . "Susan," said Hins, addressing her maid, | who that moment joined her. pack up my trunks."

wounded soldiers from the Crimes." louder and wilder. Suddenly Rina heard her "My dear, a hospital is not a fit place for own name mingling with this shouting and "The best detective in London is here now. for a hospital-nurse, even if there were no other the walls shoulder at the top of his voice. Layor send Susan. " I shati take Susan with me. If any one bouquet containing the ring, and a note ex- wishes to go who has not the means, I will furp aining that the ring had been taken from her nish them with money, but I cannot hire any one to do my duty.

> sign on earth, she heard a voice that was tamiliar to her ask, "How long have I to live, "Perhaps an bour," my cost; when I am dead, send it to its address and as she gave it, "I die content." As their eyes met, he said, "My wife!" His arms relaxed their hold, and Rins saw "Never, never, never!" in a low but webe that he had done with life. long as you are a stranger, the courtery due to the hospital one morning, and heard loud sing-

"Where are you going, my child?" saked who was brought in last night, and there is no oner place to put him."

New I am come, you must rest; you are raised ber hand to arrange his pillow she saw with the news of my death. Give me water." | that his eyes were fixed upon the opal ring Miss Stockton sat arranging some flowers near a window, over which was trained a white a table, a woman took is from his nand, and placed it in his hand. A smile lighted up as jamine. Wanting a flower, she raised her passing him, knelt beside the bed and held it face as he drew her close to him, and windy hand to place it from the vine, and in so doing to the light of water from the state of the word of the wounded man. As she re-